

New President of Singapore Shipping Association elected

Pacific International Line's (PIL) Teo Teng Seng is taking up the helm at the Singapore Shipping Association (SSA).

June 20, 2025

Marcus Hand, Editor

Credit: SSA

Teo was elected President of SSA on Thursday at the association's AGM and succeeds Caroline Yang who has served the maximum of three terms of two years.

"I am deeply humbled and honoured to be elected as the President of the 2025/2027 Council. As our industry faces a myriad of challenges such as the pressure to decarbonise; keeping up with the advancement of technology; unstable geopolitics and economic uncertainty; the role of SSA as a tripartite partner is more crucial than ever," said Teo.

Teo who is an advisor to PIL previously served as the chair of SSA's digitalisation committee from 2020 to 2025.

Yang's six-year tenure as SSA President included the Covid pandemic as she was deeply involved in initiatives for safe crew change and port operations.

"I am greatly honoured to have served as the President of the Singapore Shipping Association and would like to thank the members for their unwavering support and trust in me for the last six years. As I reflect on my time in SSA, it has been a truly valuable experience, where I have been fortunate enough to be in a position where I could help Maritime SG and make a difference," she said.

The following were also elected to serve of the SSA Council

- Lakhbir Singh, Chief Executive Officer, Orient Maritime Agencies,
- Katie Men, Managing Director, Iseaco Investment
- Lee Keng Lin, Chief Executive Officer, Cyan Renewables
- Dr. Akanksha Batura Pai, Executive Director, Sinoda Shipping Agency
- Capt. Kunal Nakra, General Manager, Safety Governance and Performance, Swire Shipping
- Joey Chua, Director of Digital and IT Transformation, Gulf Marine

And the council nominated the following members to be co-opted:

- Goh Chung Hun, President & Strategic Business Partner, Lloyd's Register Singapore
- Sherin Goh, Chief, People & Organisation, IMC Shipping
- Leong Kah Wah, Partner, Rajah & Tann Singapore LLP
- Prabjot Singh Chopra, Vice President, Technology, SeaTech Solutions International